Consecrating Our Parish To Mary in the Year of Fatima!

One hundred years ago, Our Lady appeared to three little children, Francisco, Jacinta and Lucia, in Fatima. Pope Francis chose this centennial anniversary to declare 2017 an Extraordinary Jubilee Year so as to remember the great messages of Fatima, which I summarized as the need to Pray for Peace (daily), in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament (frequently), go to Reconciliation (monthly, Devotion of First Five Saturdays), in Sacrifice: Remember PRAERS (Pra-yers)! It is all about prayer through the intercession of Mary. On the 100th anniversary of the first apparition on May 13, 2017, OLHOC launched the Charles County Deanery initiative (to have a a celebration in a different parish on each of the six apparition days) through a procession and Mass (attended by over 400 people). Since then, we have joined efforts on the following months at St. Catherine Alexandria, Port Tobacco, St. Mary, Newport, St. Francis de Sales, Baden, and St. Joseph, Pomfret (on the final day of apparitions, we will join Sacred Heart, La Plata). This weekend, on Saturday, October 7, we celebrate the annual Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (traditionally, October is the month of the Rosary).

Next week, we will conclude our own celebration of this Year of Fatima by consecrating our entire parish to Mary! When we were established by Cardinal Hickey as a parish 37 years ago, he chose a Feast Day of Mary (September 15, Our Lady of Sorrows) and put our parish under the protection of Mary by choosing our name: Our Lady Help of Christians! So, from the very beginning, Mary has been our patroness saint! Many of our parishioners have already consecrated themselves individually to Jesus through Mary (Consecration promoted by St. Louis de Montfort 400 years ago and promoted by St. John Paul II). A consecration to Mary, or to Jesus through Mary is to entrust oneself into the hands of Mary, our Mother, so that she can lead us to Jesus and eternal life. Following the messages of Fatima, St. John Paul II consecrated the whole world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on March 25, 1984 (33 years ago). Pope Francis renewed that consecration on May 13, 2017 when he visited Fatima. So, in many ways, one can affirm that our parish has already been consecrated to May. What we plan to do on Sunday, October 15, is re-affirm such consecration by having all our parishioners join in a consecration prayer. We will introduce such prayer at all Masses (including the Vigil Mass, October 14).

We will conclude our own Year of Fatima by welcoming Bishop Dorsonville at 5 pm on Sunday, October 15. Every parishioner is invited to join him at 5 pm in the Narthex. To display the unity in diversity of our parish, everyone is invited to dress in line with the customs of their country of origin (whether we are a first generation American, or third, or fifth generation, we can display a sign of our ancestors). Bishop Dorsonville will then lead us in a Living Rosary in our renovated church around 5:30 pm (if you want to be one of the 63 people representing each bead of the Rosary and reciting one Our Father or Hail Mary, come early and sign up before 5 pm). This will be followed by an outdoor Eucharistic Procession (accompanied by music by the Mariachis), and then the 7 pm Mass. Right after Holy Communion, Bishop Dorsonville will lead us in the Consecration Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Whether individually or collectively, we have all benefitted

OLHOC Volunteers Feeding Those in Need

On Sept. 21, men, women and children enjoyed a delicious meal at the Shepherd's Table dinner sponsored by our Community Outreach. Many thanks to menu coordinator, Dolores Cacciaglia, and the many hard-working volunteers who prepared and served almost 60 guests.

The women and children of the Angels Watch Shelter enjoyed a variety of entrees including fried chicken, meatloaf, corned beef and cabbage, sausage and sauerkraut with many side dishes and a delicious dessert. Thanks to volunteers Doreen McCallister, Margie Hampton, Theresa Lloyd, Josefina Knapp, Ali Nikolai, Madonna Gaume, and the Cacciaglia family who prepare and delivered the meal.

Healing Mass

A Healing Mass with Fr. Martin Scott will be held on Saturday, October 28, 2017 at 5 pm at OLHOC. Confessions available at 4 pm, followed by the 5 pm Mass, with healing prayers to follow.
